PENINSULA SOCIAL MISCELLANY

Short Paragraphs of Personal and Social Events Among Our Neighbors Across the Halifax.

Mr. Harry Coleman is in town from Scotland, spending a few days with friends.

Mrs. M. L. Lambdin made a short trip to Jacksonville this week.

There was a cakewalk and dance at Keating's casino last Friday evening, which was well attended.

Mrs. N. A. Drake has bought, of L. C. Butler, a river-front lot at Holly Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Underwood, of Newark, N. J., arrived this week and are guests of Mrs. Williams and her sons, John and Howard.

D. E. Morris and wife, of Jamestown, N. Y., are guests of The Breakers.

F. H. Webber was in town Saturday and Sunday of this week.

R. M. Chelbrough and wife, of New York, are at The Breakers.

The Wednesday evening dances at Keating's pavilion are discontinued until the summer season, but the Saturday evening dances are still well attended. About twenty-five couples were present last Saturday.

H. M. Kimmel and wife, of Huntington, Pa., are registered at The Breakers.

At the New England supper and bazaar given Friday evening at the M. E. parsonage, about seventy dollars was realized.

Religious services are being held in the M. E. church this week, both afternoon and evening, by Miss Anna Cartwright.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Warburton left on Tuesday for St. Augustine, to spend a few days.

Herwin Courtney returned Sunday night from a few day's visit in St. Augustine.

There was a cakewalk given at Wilman's opera house, Tuesday evening, by the colored people of Seabreeze, which was very well attended.

Master Leon Despland appears in a new role, that of theatrical manager. A number of his young friends have been rehearsing of late, under his direction, for a novel entertainment which will be presented to the guests of the Despland Hotel this evening.

Seaside Inn Card Party.

A card party was held Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Seaside Inn at which twenty-eight contestants struggled for the prizes.

The ladies' first prize, a souvenir spoon, was won by E. L. Stewart. The gentleman's prize, a painting by Mr. Wilcox, was won by Mr. Lucas. Horace F. Stewart secured the consolation prize, a hand painted picture.

Pleasant Evening at The Howard.

An impromptu reading and musicale at The Howard last night proved enjoyable for the guests and a few outsiders who accidentally called. The entertainment was given in honor of Dr. and Mrs. McFadden, who left for their homes in Shelbyville, Ind., today.

W. O. Hipwell, a well-known banker of Highland Park, Ill., read the "Irish Servant Girl," a tale of love of an emigrant who had been here but a short time. Mr. Hipwell, judging by his excellent brogue, must be of Irish descent. Maj. Downing, "Old Bull," played several selections on his violin accompanied by his wife on the piano. "Listen to the Mocking Bird," as played by this master of music, was played in a manner beyond description. The twitterings and trill were as liquid and sweet as though they had burst from the throat of the mocking bird itself.

Launch Party.

The launch Spruce Creek, Capt. Johnson commanding, had on board a party of guests of The Ridgewood hotel for the head of Spruce Creek today. The party was supplied by the hotel management with a nice lunch. Fishing tackle was carried along and it is expected that the party will return with a good catch.

Those on board the launch were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Segar, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Tillinghast, Mrs. H. R. Milner.

Dr. W. H. Casswell entertained Dr. and Mrs. Seelye at dinner yesterday at The Ridgewood.

HIGH ALTITUDES.

Effect on People Who Are Used to the Sea Level.

"It is dangerous for me to go to bed," That announcement by a stylishly dressed woman at the desk of the Albany hotel office startled William Maher, one of the proprietors, who was standing at the counter. "What is the trouble?" asked Mr. Maher when he recovered his voice. "The room is filled with electricity," replied the woman. "If I walk across the floor and touch my face with my hand there is a snap, and if I touch the iron bed I get a shock. Why, kind sir, it's awful! Everything I touch snaps! You might think I was some electrical freak and belonged with some show. But I am not. Honest, I never knew before that my system was electrified."

"Where is your home?" asked Mr. Maher.

"San Francisco," replied the woman. "I thought you were from the sea level," said Mr. Maher. "You have nothing to fear. The room is not charged with electricity. There is nothing wrong with the telephone or electric light wires. You see, madam, that you are not acclimated in Denver. The air here is extremely dry and is therefore surcharged with electricity, so that you in touching iron feel a slight shock, and also a slight shock when you walk across the carpet and then touch anything with your hand or shake hands with anybody. You'll get over it in a few days."

The woman went away mystified, but satisfied, and Mr. Maher said: "That's a common complaint in every hotel in town. Those of us who live here will now and then feel an electric shock by touching a conductor or when walking over a carpet if we touch our faces or shake hands, but we are not as subjective to electrical influences as those who come from sea level or from places where the air is moist. These people, of course, are shocked easily, and as it is a new experience for them they invariably believe that the telephone or electric light wires are crossed and that they are in danger of electrocution."

"We had a woman in the hotel last week who was startled because when she began to comb the hair of her French poodle electric currents ran up her arms. She thought that somebody had been playing a joke on her dog, and she was furious until I explained to her the cause." Denver Republican.

A Blacksmith Wood Carver.

John McClellan of Mount Airy, Md., is not only a fine blacksmith, but he has shown himself to be an expert wood carver. With the long quiet evenings before him he conceived the idea of whittling a seven foot black walnut box with a penknife. Four years he spent at the amusement, often getting up at 4 o'clock in the morning to take his sharp knife and whittle at the log. He put a little time at meals and in the evening. Recently he went to Hagerstown and brought the result along in a glass case, and it is now on exhibition there. It is the running gear of a farm wagon complete in every detail, together with a chain and other fixings. It is perfect in every way, not a pin missing, not a part wanting and all in one piece, nothing added or placed on in any way. It is a wonderful bit of patience and skill. Mr. McClellan used up over $25 worth of penknives at it and once bought a five dollar one with tempered blades and found it snapped up as easily as the others.—Blacksmith and Wheelwright.

A Great Cantalver Bridge.

A cantalver bridge under construction across the St. Lawrence at Quebec will contain a longer span than any bridge yet erected. The bridge consists of two approach spans of 210 feet each, two shore arms, each 500 feet in length, and a great central span 1,800 feet in length. The total length of the bridge is 4,220 feet, and although in extreme dimensions it does not compare with the Firth of Forth bridge, which is about one mile in total length, it has the distinction of having the longest span in the world by ninety feet, the two cantalvers of the Forth bridge being each 1,710 feet in length. The total width of the floor is 80 feet, and provision is made for a double track railway, two roadways for vehicles and two sidewalks. In a cantalver of this magnitude the individual members are necessarily of huge proportions, the main posts, for instance, being 325 feet in length and each weighing 750 tons.

The Life Line in Europe.

Of European nations the Norwegian and Swedish are the longest lived and the Spaniards the shortest. According to a foreign statistical return recently issued, the average duration of life is as follows: Sweden and Norway, 50 years; England, 45 years 3 months; Belgium, 44 years 11 months; Switzerland, 44 years 4 months; France, 43 years 6 months; Austria, 39 years 8 months; Prussia and Italy, 39 years; Bavaria, 36 years; Spain, 32 years 4 months.

New Kind of Water Pipes.

During the past year wooden pipes wound with wire have come into use by mill owners and mining engineers in western Canada. It is said that this form of pipe is superior to iron pipe since it weighs much less, costs only half as much and is less liable to burst in freezing weather. When used in place of flumes it saves water and needs little repairing.

SNOWSLIDES.

They Are Fearful of Speed and a Magnificent Spectacle.

Snowslides are most frequent on steep mountains that have a heavy snowfall. With a billowy train of snow dust boiling out behind and overturning or crushing almost everything before they make an awful and magnificent spectacle. Their speed is sometimes so great that trees alongside are overturned by the swamping force of the air which the slide has violently disturbed.

There are many well authenticated instances where miners have been caught on the surface of a slide and by dexterous use of their skis have kept on top of the engulfing surface of the slide and come out uninjured. John Muir once rode down from the high Sierra on a snowslide. He was swished back down in a minute over a distance that had taken all day to climb.

One day while climbing up a steep snowy slope a slide started beneath me, and for a time I was on the surface of its upper edge, where the snow was about two feet deep. Wading a torrent will give some idea of the sweep of the coasting snow. The snow dust steamed and boiled up around me, and each time I struggled to my feet the rushing snow simply jerked my feet from beneath me. At last, almost smothered, I was dropped off the back end upon bare ground. Enos A. Mills in Harper's Weekly.

WEAPONS DECLINED.

Virchow's Odd Proposition When Challenged by Bismarck.

Dr. Virchow, the eminent man of science, had been sharply criticizing Prince Bismarck, who was then chancellor.

At the end of a particularly severe attack Bismarck felt himself personally affronted and sent seconds to Virchow with a challenge to fight a duel.

The man of science was found in his laboratory, hard at work at experiments which had for their object the discovery of a means of destroying trichinae, which were making great ravages in Germany.

"Ah," said the doctor, "a challenge from Prince Bismarck, oh! Well, well! As I am the challenged party, I suppose I have the choice of weapons. Here they are!"

He held up two large sausages, which seemed to be exactly alike.

"One of these sausages," he said, "is filled with trichinae; it is deadly. The other is perfectly wholesome. Externally they can't be told apart. Let his excellency do me the honor to choose whichever of these he wishes and eat it, and I will eat the other!"

Though the proposition was as reasonable as any quelling proposition could be, Prince Bismarck's representatives refused it. No duel was fought, and no one accused Virchow of cowardice.

Cuban Revolution.

A Pennsylvania doctor of the name of Pearce, who has just returned home from an extended visit to Cuba, says he has every reason to believe that there is impending in the "ever faithful island" a revolution that will stir things up considerably. In the hotels, cafes, theaters and elsewhere he found a revolutionary atmosphere that was unmistakable. The discontent, he says, is deep rooted and will not be easily allayed.

As proteges of this government, we would not, of course, be content to sit idly by and see the Cubans hurt each other. Col. Waterson is on record as saying that we must take Cuba at a day not very far distant, and that we made a mistake in not laying our hands on the island after the war.

Wm. Killam, the Clarendon's noted chef, states that all hotel employees are especially invited to attend a dance at Wilman's Opera House, Seabreeze, Friday night, next.

Miss Mary Leedom, who has been spending the winter with friends in this city, left Tuesday morning for her home in St. Paris, Ohio. She will stop at St. Augustine, Jacksonville, Lookout Mountain and other points of interest.

Take the number of your living brothers; double this amount; add to it three; multiply the result by five; add to the number of living sisters; multiply the result by ten; add number of deaths of brothers and sisters; subtract 150 from the result. The right hand figure will be the number of deaths; the middle figure will be the number of living sisters; the left figure will be the number of living brothers. These figures never lie.

NEW BUILDINGS CONTEMPLATED

During the Coming Summer More Buildings Will Probably be Erected Than Ever Before.

During the coming summer it is more than likely that there will be more buildings erected than ever before in Daytona and her suburbs. Thousands of dollars worth of property have already changed hands and, as the season draws to a close, prospective buyers or builders are hastening to close deals with the real estate men or the contractors.

One of the contractors showed a News reporter a roll of plans, yesterday, which he stated would keep him busy the entire building season. For obvious reasons he desires his name withheld, but the plans show cottages from the small, five room ones up to those of eight and ten rooms, which are to be model in every respect. The total amount of these contracts foot up to nearly $800,000.

The Peters property, corner Second and Ridgewood avenues, recently sold to Jacob Gindlick, of Pittsfield, Mass., is to be occupied by a model, first class hotel. S. H. Gove has the plans drawn, which show that the dwelling, after being remodeled and added to, will be a thirty room hotel with rearranged ensuite and with baths, it will be modern in every respect. Mr. Gindlick is a hotel man of experience and knows how to cater to the wants of the traveling public.

Before another season rolls around a handsome residence will be built on the Condit property, corner of Orange and Palmetto streets. S. H. Gove has the contract for this work. The erection of this dwelling will complete, with the exception of one or two vacant lots, a row of neat homes.

The Shantz property, recently bought by the Messrs. Armstrong, at the corner of Ridgewood and Magnolia avenues, will be improved and built on at once. The dwelling now occupying this site is to be moved to the rear and will face Magnolia.

ly been decided what will be built.
Mr. Gove has plans drawn for two handsome residences, but influence is being brought to bear to have a hotel of the highest class built on this excellent hotel site. Daytona needs a hotel of this character and, as this is about the last piece of ground suitable for this purpose, it is to be hoped that a hotel will be built there.

HER MISTAKE.

Why Miss Shogryle Painted When She Learned the Truth.

"Pardon me, Miss Shogryle," said the young man with the busy air and the sheaf of note paper, "but is it true that you have just purchased the ancestral estate of the Mutch-Moneighs in Vermont for a summer home?"

"Take a chair, sir," replied the bewitching Flossie Shogryle, the life and charm of the chorus in the reigning success, "The Merry, Merry Village Maiden."

The young man took the chair, then repeated his question.

"Oh, yes," she said carelessly. "I believe I did buy that place last week."

"That's in Vermont," commented the caller, jotting down something. "Have you acquired any property here?"

"I really can't remember all these business details."

"I have read that you have purchased the Fifth Avenue mansion of the Hot-cash family."

"Yes."

"That is valued at $1,500,870, is it not?"

"Some such figure," airily.

"And that you have imported gowns aggregating in value $50,000 to wear in the opera in which you are to star?"

"You have it correctly, I think," she smiled, nibbling a bonbon and reaching for a photograph.

"And that your new automobile is a $10,000 one?"

"All of that at least."

"That you refused $5,750 for you, prize winning dog?"

"Indeed he is worth more than that."

"Is there anything else that I might list?"

"Isn't that enough for one story?"

"No. We want to figure it all up."

"But that would be a trifle too much.
Just put in anything you can think of,
and it will be all right."

"Not with me, Miss Shogryle. I want the facts."

"The facts?"

"Yes, certainly. You will have to be assessed for all your property, you know."

"Assessed?"

"You understand me correctly. I am the tax assessor."

"Great goodness!" she cried, dropping the box of bonbons and the photograph she thought he would want to reproduce. "I thought you were a reporter."

After her maid had let her sniff the smelling salts for some ten minutes she managed to make the man understand that she had $18 worth of Jewelry and that her costumes belonged to the owners of the show and that her other property was in Spain.—Judge.

It Was Good.

Chloe, our maid of all work, had the true negro's fondness for "good eating," and, like so many of her race, she often used language more lofty than appropriate. One day Chloe's mistress made an extremely good pudding for dessert. Chloe took a generous taste of the pudding, smacked her lips and said, with evident satisfaction:
"My! Oh, ef dat jess don't taste melodies!"—Lippincott's Magazine.

It Hurt Her Pride.

"That Mrs. Puffy is horribly proud.
Did you hear about the fire they had in their home last week?"

"No."

"Well, she was the maddest woman you ever saw because the chief of the fire department wouldn't turn in a general alarm and actually insisted upon having the blaze put out by an ordinary hand extinguisher."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Study in Carbon.

"I suppose you know that a lump of coal is about the same thing as a diamond," said the student.

"Yes," answered the man who has just gone to housekeeping. "And the worst is that the coal trust is beginning to realize it, too, and charge accordingly."—Washington Star.

ALPINE PICKINGS.

Complaints come from Switzerland that in some places even the alpine huts are infected by advertising signs.

In Grindelwald and some other Swiss resorts winter guests are arriving to be showered with numerous and annoying signs. The Swiss government is unable to find sufficient attention for its diplomatic service, as the salary is only $500 a year.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River at its narrowest point and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29° 37' north and longitude 81° 05' west, and is one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what is known as high bank rock land that was crowned by nature with a most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of today, with its beautiful cottages and well-made walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lovely live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palm-trees, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bay and coral-barked holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the amplexiclimb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breeze from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, macadamized and shell roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

Water Supply
which is derived from numerous flowing wells, of which there are probably 300 in the corporate limits. This flow is secured by boring wells to the depth of from 80 to 120 feet, passing through several strata of rock, and this depth assures purity from all surface contamination. The water is slightly impregnated with magnesia and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away.

The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach

lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect in comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.

The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 200 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled palm fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at oblique, measures about 500 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the grey-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath throughout the larger part of the year, while the strong and expert swimmer, can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula

lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, an opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature

at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected or homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying. Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona.

At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, cavalle, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the ocean are present in the river.

Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.
